Commas #2

STEP 1: Access the Powerpoint “Commas.” All Powerpoint slides are located at the Writing Center webpage (http://youngamericans.libguides.com/writingcenter) under the DLAs tab. Read through and understand the slides.

Remember, you can ask questions at any point in this process. Write down your questions as you go along, or go and ask a tutor each time you have a question. This is a self-paced activity, so make it work for you.

STEP 2: Correct the sentences below. If you feel a sentence is correct as is then write “Correct” in the space available. Some sentences might need multiple corrections, so make sure to correct the sentences completely.

STEP 3: Once you’re done, see a tutor to go over your answers and to answer any questions you may have. Have the tutor sign the bottom of the exercise, hold onto the exercise so that you have a study guide throughout the term, and then, submit all completed exercises to your instructor at the end of the term.
1. I look forward to Fridays because it’s when I can catch up on my hobbies including camping.

2. Studying for finals over the fall break was extremely unproductive which taught me that more free time didn’t necessarily make me more productive.

3. Some of my favorite movies are dark comedies such as Punch-Drunk Love and American Psycho.

4. Our student body is quite small it consists of two hundred men and women but they’re all extremely motivated to impact their society in a positive way.

5. If a turkey and a pig were to have a baby this new animal could be the ultimate holiday protein the only problem would be the jarring food coma that would occur afterwards.

6. Certain states in America have more instances of obesity than others some think this is due to the lack of healthy food options in those areas while others believe it’s because of space aliens.

7. My mama told me that I better shop around which was confusing because I never knew if she was talking about groceries or something more implicit.

8. How is it that men make more than women in Hollywood when women are more photogenic?

9. Life is an odd experience when taking into account that we live for several decades being utterly confused as to what we’re supposed to do with our time.

10. Hi-fives should be the official greeting in the White House so that politics can be a bit more interesting.
